Cover picture, Golden Chains, Duke Street, taken last May.

Dear Readers,

I can't remember such a long, cold, miserable, sometimes sunny winter / spring. One can't really call it spring as things in the garden aren't springing (jumping out at you!). Even the grass is too cold to grow properly. As I write, the hedges and trees are not in bud yet and it's the 9th. of April. It's a proper grey, winter landscape out there. Still, at the moment it is still dry. What would I find to write about if we didn't have weather? Enough of that because as you all well know, by the time you read this it will all have changed.

What a fine effort by all concerned with the £950 raised for church funds at the recent Dick Brice show in the village hall. Congratulations to all and grateful thanks to those who filled the hall for the occasion. Unfortunately I was unable to be present as I had a longstanding commitment which required my presence a long way from Withington.

NATURE NOTES

A new visitor to my garden over the past few weeks has been a small bird, (smaller than the house sparrow,) which has a black head with a fine white collar and drooping mouistache. At first there was one, then two and now I have as many as six on the lawn at any one time. On consulting the oracle, (my bird book), I find that it is a Reed Bunting, which is not uncommon in gardens. Being a ground feeder, it could be that the hard winter with the ground frozen quite hard in many places, has driven it into gardens to look for an easier source of food. Any other nature notes? If so let me have them as they can be of interest to many people. Ed.

News from Westhide

It has been another quiet month in Westhide. The cold weather appears to have abated for the moment and the seeds are germinating. The churchwardens report that a most successful encounter was held on the approach to Easter with the young pupils of Withington Primary School. Certainly the Church looked very welcoming with several thought provoking installations.

The Church was equally well decorated for the Easter service, although this proved more challenging than normal due to the nationwide daffodil shortage. Matters were enlivened by the discovery of a stray cat in the vestry, which had clearly been there for some time. Fortunately one of our number recognised the animal, and was able to facilitate a touching re-union with its owner (if cats can be said to have such).

The planned "Spring" churchyard maintenance, the day before, was abandoned due to adverse conditions (snow) and has now been re-arranged for:

Saturday, 20 April from 10 am

The Church AGM is due to be held on Wednesday, 24 April at 7.30 pm in the Church. This is open to all.

Finally, the traditional Rogation Walk on Sunday 5 May will begin with a local picnic and then a walk to Dormington to share in the Evening Service. More details nearer the time on the Church notice board.

Dear Friends

Being a Herefordian I look forward every Thursday to getting my Hereford Times from the local shop. This week there was a very moving article by a former Sixth Form college student, Madeleine McGivern, who is now working for Christian Aid in the Middle East and who had been visiting Syrian refugees in Iraq. She said that while she was there, there were about 115,000 refugees but that that was rising by about 8,000 people a day. She described the terrible plight of families fleeing from war-torn Syria and ended the article by reminding people of the Disasters Emergency Committee appeal for help.

Christian Aid is a member agency of the Committee and this month Christian Aid Week falls between 12th and 18th May. In the past there have been house to house collections but in this technological age many people find it easier to give online or by pressing the red button on our TVs.

I hope that we will all respond generously to this year's appeal. Just because the people who need our help live far away and might not be the same colour or creed as us, it doesn't mean that they don't need our help. Jesus taught, through the story of the Good Samaritan, that they are still our neighbours.

This is reiterated in the popular hymn written a few years ago especially for Christian Aid –

When I needed a neighbour were you there, were you there?

When I needed a neighbour were you there?

And the creed and the colour and the name won't matter, were you there?

This Christian Aid Week please support the work of people like Madeleine by giving generously – online or using the envelopes that will be in our churches on 12th and 19th – or by supporting the Coffee Morning on Saturday 18th at 10.30 am.

Best Wishes / Jane

History Exhibition in Church 14th – 15th September

Following the successful exhibitions we have staged in the church in previous years, we are hoping to use the subject of leisure time in the past for our display on this occasion.

We are thinking about including artefacts, news cuttings, photos etc , which will include :

Children's toys and games,
Traditional women's pastimes including sewing, knitting, rug-making, quilting etc
Traditional men's hobbies; cars or other machinery, photography, carpentry, etc
Gardening – old photos, equipment, clubs
Sport – equipment, photos, clubs
Music – old radios, gramophones, records etc
Village special occasions – fetes, dances etc

If you have anything of interest to loan for the exhibition, please let Ruth or Laureen know. (The earlier we know what's available, the easier to plan the exhibition, though we will not collect things up till close to the time.)

PRESTON WYNNE NEWS

How does that poem go? “Oh to be in England, now that April’s here” and all that mularky, well personally we’d rather be somewhere a bit warmer and a bit drier. Although to be fair the last day or two it has felt warmer now that that Arctic wind has at last dropped. My cousin Barbara was down for Easter for her usual visit and was disappointed not to see the lambs in the meadow this year as it was too cold for them to be put out, it’s lovely to see them out now tearing about, pity she missed them. Everything seems to be playing catch-up which it surely will. A chat with John Huddleston the other day was interesting, he was remembering one May (was it 1976?) when a very late frost completely took the hops on David Westoby’s farm. They were cut down completely and started again, and although the hops weren’t picked until October it was one of the best crops ever.

The Good Friday Workshop was well attended with about 40 children enjoying the many and varied activities. Thanks are due to all of the Helpers who came along and ensured this lovely morning was a success.

Hall News

Don’t forget BINGO NIGHT which is always on the third Tuesday in the month, eyes down 8.00 pm.

St. David’s Day Supper This was a delicious three course meal followed by entertainment again provided by Janet Watson and her team with a few entertaining impromptu solos thrown in, all with a Welsh theme of course.

A good time was had by all, many thanks to all who helped with this event.

W.I News

Well done Felton and Preston Wynne W.I quiz team who got through the heats in Ledbury and came fourth in the final held at Sutton. This is a County event so that was a very creditable performance.

Finally, news of another baby boy. Many congratulations to Ed and Roz Simcock on your new addition to the family.

All for now
